

I believe that the FCC should let market forces and industry leadership set standards.